Keyboard with trackball

Comfortable handling: in addition to the touchscreen-system, the view terminal can be optionally equipped with a keyboard and trackball.

- This integrated keyboard is ideally suited for internet use.
- Easy handling, allows lengthy data entry into the computer.

Cardreader for identification

The card reader makes communication perfect:

- Insert the card, the customer's data is read.
- "A comfortable and easy way" for your customers to register their information.
- Important and efficient for customer contact and follow-up.

Thermal printer

Nothing important gets lost with this printout system:

- The customer is able to access information and print it.
